Specifies that if the manager fails to make a payment by the due date of the payment, the management agreement is terminated. Specifies the provisions that must be included in a management agreement. Provides that a management agreement, or an interest in a management agreement, may not be sold, assigned, or otherwise transferred, or pledged as collateral to secure financing without the approval of the Indiana gaming commission. Provides that any such payments by the manager are deposited in an excess payments account established by the state lottery commission. Specifies that the management agreement must require the state lottery commission to make payments from the excess payments account (if there is a positive balance in the account) when the baseline growth percentage is greater than the manager's revenue growth for a state fiscal year. Provides that if at the expiration or termination of the management agreement there is money remaining in the excess payments account, the state lottery commission shall transfer that money to the administrative trust fund. Provides that (in addition to the prohibition against certain types of games) the management agreement may not authorize a manager to operate a game that is not a game (or variation of a game) that the state lottery commission operated before the management agreement is executed or that the state lottery commission is operating on the date the management agreement is executed. - (1) The budget agency shall calculate the average annual growth (expressed as a percentage) in gross revenue earned by the commission during the last five (5) full state fiscal years preceding July 1, 2006. For purposes of this subsection, this percentage is referred to as the "baseline growth percentage".
- (2) Beginning with the second full state fiscal year after the execution of the management agreement, the budget agency shall for each state fiscal year calculate the growth (expressed as a percentage) in gross revenue earned by the manager under the management agreement, as compared to the preceding state fiscal year.

(3) The commission shall establish an excess payments account for purposes of this subsection. Any earnings from money in the excess payments account accrue to the account. Money in the excess payments account may be used only to make payments to a manager as required by this subsection and to receive payments from a manager as required by this subsection. Money in the excess payments account is continuously appropriated for purposes of this subsection.

(4) If the percentage calculated by the budget agency under subdivision (2) for a particular state fiscal year exceeds the baseline growth percentage, the manager must make an additional payment to the commission. The amount of the additional payment for the state fiscal year is equal to:

(A) the gross revenue earned by the manager from lottery tickets in the state fiscal year; multiplied by

(B) the difference between the percentage calculated by the budget agency under subdivision (2) for the state fiscal year and the baseline growth percentage.

The commission shall deposit any additional payment made by the manager under this subdivision into the excess payments account.

(5) If the baseline growth percentage exceeds the percentage calculated by the budget agency under subdivision (2) for a particular state fiscal year, the commission must make a payment to the manager from the excess payments account. However, the commission is required to make a payment to the manager only if the excess payments account has a positive balance. The amount of the payment by the commission for the state fiscal year is equal to the lesser of:

(A) the result of:

(i) the gross revenue earned by the manager from lottery tickets in the state fiscal year; multiplied by

(ii) the difference between the baseline growth percentage and the percentage calculated by the budget agency under subdivision (2) for the state fiscal year; or

(B) the balance in the excess payments account.

(6) The management agreement must specify the time by which a payment required under this subsection shall be

(7) If at the expiration or termination of the management agreement there is money remaining in the excess payments account, the commission shall transfer that money to the administrative trust fund established by IC 4-30-15-1."
